Informa collects, uses and protects personal data in accordance with its Privacy Policy, which can be found here: https://www.informa.com/privacy-policy/.

16. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

16.1 General.

16.1.1 The Client acknowledges that the Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and shall be governed by English law and, to the extent that the Agreement is earlier, and (iv) provide Informa with reasonable details of any enquiry, complaint, notice or other communication it receives from any supervisory authority relating to Client’s use of the Data List, and act reasonably in co-operating with Informa in respect of Client’s response to the same. Client acknowledges and agrees that Client shall only be obliged to provide to the extent that it has all or part of any Data List to the extent that it is legally permitted to do so and Informa shall not be liable to Client if the volume of personal data provided to Client is less than anticipated as a result of Informa’s compliance with Data Protection law.

16.2 General

16.2.1 Without prejudice to Condition 12.7, if, by reason of any Force Majeure Event Informa is delayed in or prevented from performing any of its obligations under the Agreement, then such delay or non-performance shall not be deemed to be a breach of the Agreement and shall excuse Client from paying any proportion of the Fees already paid or, where no Fees are payable or where the proportion of the Fees already paid is less than the Revised Fees, any proportion of the Fees already paid will be refunded and Client will be released from paying any further proportion of the Fees.

16.2.2 To the extent that the Application Form expressly permits cancellation by Client, Client may cancel the Package on written notice to Informa, except where Informa has the right to terminate this Contract under Condition 14.1. Upon any such cancellation by Client, Client shall pay Informa such cancellation fees as set out in the Application Form. The Group of Domestic Force Majeure Events specified in Condition 12.2 set out the Client’s sole remedy in the event of the changing of the opening date of any Event rescheduled pursuant to Condition 12.2.

16.2.3 In the event the Event is cancelled as a result of a Force Majeure Event, this Agreement will terminate without liability provided that, at Client’s election: (i) Informa shall retain a credit note for 25% of the total Fees already paid or, where no Fees are payable or where the proportion of the Fees already paid is less than the Revised Fees, any proportion of the Fees already paid will be refunded and Client will be released from paying any further proportion of the Fees; (ii) Informa shall be entitled to retain an amount equal to 25% of the total Fees (the “Revised Fees”) from any proportion of the Fees already paid or, where no Fees are payable or where the proportion of the Fees already paid is less than the Revised Fees, the whole of any proportion of the Fees already paid; and (iii) Client shall be entitled to receive the balance (or the whole as the case may be) of the Revised Fees, which will become immediately due and payable; and after the deduction of the Revised Fees any proportion of the Fees already paid will be refunded and Client will be released from paying any further proportion of the Fees.

16.2.4 Upon the giving of notice of termination, without prejudice to any other right or remedy it may have, Informa may at its option cancel the Event within 14 days of receiving written notice of the breach (or such lesser period as would be required for the breach to be remedied in sufficient time prior to the Event); or (ii) goes into liquidation whether compulsory or voluntary or is declared insolvent or an administrator or receiver is appointed over the whole or any part of the Client’s assets or if the Client enters into any arrangement for the benefit of or compounds with its creditors generally or ceases to carry on business or threatens to do any of these things or suffers any analogous event in any jurisdiction.

16.2.5 Upon the giving of notice of termination, without prejudice to any other right or remedy it may have, Informa may at its option cancel the Event within 14 days of receiving written notice of the breach (or such lesser period as would be required for the breach to be remedied in sufficient time prior to the Event); or (ii) goes into liquidation whether compulsory or voluntary or is declared insolvent or an administrator or receiver is appointed over the whole or any part of the Client’s assets or if the Client enters into any arrangement for the benefit of or compounds with its creditors generally or ceases to carry on business or threatens to do any of these things or suffers any analogous event in any jurisdiction.

16.2.6 Client will be released from paying any further proportion of the Fees; (ii) the display of any products, documents or other materials exhibited by the Client at the Event; or (ii) Informa’s receipt of any data in connection with this Agreement, it shall provide the other party with reasonable details of such Reportable Breach without undue delay, and (ii) act reasonably in cooperating with the other party in respect of any response to the same. Informa collects, uses and protects personal data in accordance with its Privacy Policy, which can be found here: https://www.informa.com/privacy-policy/.

16.2.7 Without prejudice to the generality of Condition 12.7, Client warrants that if it receives any list containing personal data from Informa as part of the Package (“a ‘Data List’”), it shall: (i) keep the Data List confidential, (ii) at all times comply with applicable Data Protection laws and only use the Data List for such purpose(s) as has been agreed with Informa in writing, (iii) not distribute, transfer or disclose its rights to the Data List without the prior written consent of Informa, or (iv) act reasonably in processing of personal data in connection with this Agreement, it shall (i) provide the other party with reasonable details of such Reportable Breach without undue delay, and (ii) act reasonably in cooperating with the other party in respect of any response to the same. Informa collects, uses and protects personal data in accordance with its Privacy Policy, which can be found here: https://www.informa.com/privacy-policy/.

16.2.8 Nothing in the Agreement shall create, or be deemed to create, a partnership or joint venture or any analogous relationship of employer and employee or principal and agent between the parties.

16.2.9 If and to the extent that there is any conflict between these Conditions and the Application Form, the terms of the Application Form shall prevail.

16.2.10 Each party acknowledges that the Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in relation to the Event and that it does not rely upon any oral or written representation made to it by the other party. No variation of the Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing signed by or on behalf of each of the parties to the Agreement.

16.2.11 No rights under the Agreement may be assigned by the Client without the prior written consent of Informa. All or part of any Data List may be disclosed to the Agreement to any third party or agent without the prior written consent of Informa.

16.2.12 The Client who is not a party to this Agreement will indemnify and keep the Client fully and effectively indemnified against all losses, claims, damages and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) arising from or connected with the Client’s relationship with any contractor or third party, or from the payment of any fees payable to any contractor or third party, or from the payment of any fees payable to or use of the Material constitutes an infringement of the Intellectual Property Rights of any third party or is in breach of any applicable law.

16.3 Nothing in these Conditions shall exclude or limit liability which cannot be excluded by the applicable law.

16.4 Confidential Information

16.4.1 For the purposes of this Condition 16 “Confidential Information” means information disclosed by a party (the “Disclosing Party”) to another (the “Receiving Party”) relating to the Disclosing Party’s business, products, affairs and financial affairs or to any of the Client’s customers and trade secrets including, without limitation, customer lists, billing practices, contractual arrangements, technical data and know-how.

16.4.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the fact the Client’s participation in the Event shall not be deemed to be Confidential Information. The Receiving Party shall not (except in the proper performance of its obligations under the Agreement) during the continuance of the Agreement or at any time thereafter use or disclose to any person, firm or company (and shall use its best endeavours to prevent publication or disclosure of any Confidential Information). This restriction does not apply to: (i) any information in the public domain other than in breach of the Agreement; (ii) information already in the lawful possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party; (iii) information obtained from a third party who is free to divulge the same; (iv) disclosure of information which is required by law or other competent authorities; and (v) information developed or created by one party independently of the other.

16.5 Data Protection

16.5.1 Client acknowledges that the Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in relation to the Event and that it does not rely upon any oral or written representation made to it by the other party. No variation of the Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing signed by or on behalf of each of the parties to the Agreement.

16.5.2 Each party acknowledges that the Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in relation to the Event and that it does not rely upon any oral or written representation made to it by the other party. No variation of the Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing signed by or on behalf of each of the parties to the Agreement.

16.5.3 No rights under the Agreement may be assigned by the Client without the prior written consent of Informa. All or part of any Data List may be disclosed to the Agreement to any third party or agent without the prior written consent of Informa.

16.5.4 The Client who is not a party to this Agreement will indemnify and keep the Client fully and effectively indemnified against all losses, claims, damages and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees) arising from or connected with the Client’s relationship with any contractor or third party, or from the payment of any fees payable to any contractor or third party, or from the payment of any fees payable to or use of the Material constitutes an infringement of the Intellectual Property Rights of any third party or is in breach of any applicable law.

16.5.5 Nothing in these Conditions shall exclude or limit liability which cannot be excluded by the applicable law.

16.6 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

16.6.1 The Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New York, exclusive of the choice of law rules of any jurisdiction, and the Client submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in the State of New York, exclusive of the choice of law rules of any jurisdiction, for the resolution of any dispute between the parties arising out of or relating to this Agreement. The Client will not prevent or restrict Informa from pursuing any action against the Client in any court of competent jurisdiction. Both parties agree to waive any rights to trial by jury.
